

The Theological Science Society, Int.

TELEPHONE: (847) 462-0410 □ P.O. Box 722 □ Cary, Illinois 60013-0722 □

On the web at: www.Theologicalsciencesociety.org Email: tss.anne@sbcglobal.net

This Being Our Monthly Letter & Chat for April 2021

My Dear Friend and Fellow Member,

We've had some lovely days in April here in the Midwest and more damp and cooler days than I really cared about. I was particularly aware of the cooler temps as I had just returned from 2 lovely weeks in Florida which were mostly sunny and warm. How quickly I adjust to the warmer climate. I'm wondering now how I can become a snow bird and live part time in a more temperate climate.

However, the spring flowers are in bloom and lovely – the daffodils and crocus, the trees have beautiful blossoms, and the leaves budding out. Yes, April is a beautiful time of the year to be celebrating Earth Day! And May is always gloriously fragrant.

This year the celebration of both Passover and Easter were earlier than usual. And, I still found it appropriate to use one of Doctor Carruthers Chat Letters discussing this topic. I trust you too will enjoy it. This month's Letter, original written in 1958 discusses at some length The Age of Prophecy and reminds us that this Aquarian Age is 'The End' of the Piscean dispensation, and the Beginning of the Revelation of Truth. Into this Age will be born, or reincarnated - and, indeed, already have been reincarnated Old Souls born into infant bodies - carrying over with Them ancient Knowledge which is subconscious in most of them.

Many of those such as myself born since the 1940's and 1950's up through the current generation (and I must assume future ones as well) have found ourselves drawn to the Mental Sciences as it was once called and more recently as the study and interest in Metaphysics, the Occult Sciences, Psychic phenomena, and most currently Neuroscience. How exciting to consider that in future reincarnations we will have accumulated even more advanced knowledge. There can be a wide span of time into and out of each Age. From what I currently understand it will take many years till we are fully into the Aquarian Age. Until then, we hold the consciousness, support the new comers, and do our inner work.

Great thanks to those who recognized Doctor Carruthers' Birthday Anniversary with us by making a donation in his honor.

Going to you now are my good wishes and blessings,

Rev. Ann B Schmitt, Director of The Theological Science Society, Int'l

From the STUDY OF

Hugh G. Carruthers

Prior Right Established 1958, By:
Hugh G. Carruthers, Founder-Director;
(Rabind Rama Bodhisat, I-A, (XI))

My beloved Chela:

It is pleasant to be with you in this way - to visit with you and chat about "This and That" - and, perhaps, leave with you some measure of information, inspiration and encouragement and, Who knows? Perhaps to whet your curiosity for that division of Knowledge which treats of little known Truth. But, above all else, I shall hope to urge you to give attention to the Lessons and Folders of this Course of Training for Personal Development, or Self-improvement, through Self Knowledge, that you may develop the ability to Be and Become and Do and Have what things so ever you may desire - which so many of my, and your, loved ones of this world-wide Fraternity have proved so easy of accomplishment, because they gave the time and attention to read and re-read EVERY Lesson received, once or twice each week, during each month, and prove the efficacy of this Knowledge in achievement and attainment.

So, come in, won't you? Relax and be rested in this great overstuffed chair.

I wish for you the joys of this season of The High Holy Days of The Jewish Passover and the Christian Easter celebration. My beloved Jewish Chelas have much cause for rejoicing in memory of the First Passover. May you enjoy Seder and vow to yourself that you will, always, evidence your grand heritage of Jewry that all men may see in you the Spirit Eternal of Moses, The Great Deliverer and Law-Giver, and thus commemorate next Passover as you do this appreciable Season of feasting, rejoicing, and mediation. May these eight days prove to be the beginning of a year, and many successive years in good health, prosperity and the happiness of well-being in the care and guidance of The Lord our God: "for The Lord our God is One God."

Our Christian, Islamic, Buddhistic and other Fellow Members share in this grand opportunity in the Name and for the sake of Their matchless, marvelous Saviour, The Christ, Who loved ALL mankind more that He loved Himself, and Mohammed, and Buddha, and The Master of The Mysteries.

May your Easter Sunday, the culmination of this Lenten season of High Holy Days, be a most wonderful experience for you; and it Will Be because you will be practicing His philosophy in demonstrating your Knowledge of His admonition: "Thou shalt love The Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and with all thy soul; and thy neighbour as thyself.”

I prayerfully affirm that you, my beloved Chela, enjoy a most delightful Easter and Passover - and I have no doubt whatever that ere I have been re-assigned to this Earth-plane for my next discipleship and service to All those seek the Truth, the prophetic advice of Isaiah 11:1-9, shall have been fulfilled:

11:1 “And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of His roots. (The reincarnation of the Good Leader and Teacher, Jesse, shall lead mankind to righteousness)

11:2 “And the spirit of The Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of Knowledge and of the fear (respect) of The Lord (Law);

11:3 “And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear (respect, love) of The Lord (Law); and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears.

11:4 “But with righteousness shall he judge the poor (ignorant, without Knowledge and Wisdom), and reprove the equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth (tongue; speaking Truth), and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. (The evil, negative thoughts of ignorant men)

11:5 “And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. (He shall not be lustful, nor given wholly to the satisfaction of physical passions)

11:6 “The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid (young animal) together, and a little child (innocence) shall lead them.

(The strong shall not continue to eat the weak, nor take advantage of the less intelligent.)

11:7 “And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. (While all this deals with the animal behaviour, it is to be allegorically interpreted to mean that humans - for there is animal nature all human beings- shall become brothers - One For All and All For One)

11:8 “And the suckling child shall play on the hole of the asp, (without fear of the viper, or snake, or other feared creature) (there will be no fear, nor need for fear) and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice’s den. (without fear)

11:9 “They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; (The highest point of man - the brain within the skull; the ‘temple’ of Thought - the High Priest Within; there shall not be any more evil thinking when mankind Knows the Truth of At-one-ment with Infinite Omnipresence and the creative nature of Thought) for the earth shall be full of the Knowledge of The Lord (Law) (the meaning and reason for the Knowledge of Cause and Effect) as the waters cover the sea.”

(The present generation, in this Aquarian Age, of Jews and Gentiles shall learn to Know the Truth and the Truth shall make them free from prejudice, fear, jealousy and greed and, like the lion and the lamb, all men - great and ordinary; wealthy and struggling; learned and unlearned; shall live together without seeking to harm one another.) The prophecies of Isaiah, Ezekiel, Amos and many other Prophets, are already beginning to be observed. “There shall be chariots flying in the air, raining fire and brimstone on the earth.” Could this mean to foretell the aeroplane, the bomber and the missile? “And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death.” Matthew 10:21. “Brother shall be against brother, and nation against nation.” All this is prophesied in the Bible.

We are in The Age of Prophecy! This Aquarian Age is ‘The End’ of the Piscean dispensation, and the Beginning of Revelation of Truth. Into this Age will be born, or reincarnated - and, indeed, already have been reincarnated Old Souls born into infant bodies - carrying over with Them ancient Knowledge which is subconscious in most of them.

What you are leaning Now - during this Earth-plane existence Here, WILL BECOME subconscious Knowledge Which you may make use of and direct while You Are Here; and carry on with You to the next plane of Your Being. This is why you may correctly Think, “The ‘Me’ of me IS The Reality!” And you may correctly state, as did Moses, “‘I’ AM the Lord (Law) thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt,” and from the house of bondage. (Deuteronomy 5:6) Thou shalt have none other gods before me. (Deuteronomy 5:7)

But NOTE this chapter 5 of The Fifth Book of Moses, called Deuteronomy:

“And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, ‘Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgements which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep, and do them.

5:2 “The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

5:3 “The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

5:4 The Lord talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire,

5:5 (“‘I’ stood between the Lord and you at that time, to shew you the word of the Lord: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount:.) saying,

5:6 “‘I’ AM the Lord (Law) thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.”

Then read the rest of that Chapter Number 5, and as you do, THINK and REASON. You may note that none of the people of Israel actually saw God; that Moses “stood between God and them,” and it was He Who pronounced the Commandments.

The house of bondage might well be the physical body in which You are imprisoned in this Earth-plane; the land of Egypt might also be the limited Consciousness of the objective world which keeps you in fear and subjection to the Will of Whoever is allowed to do your thinking for you. If you blindly believe what is told to you, without proof, you are NOT thinking. The easiest way to bring and keep any group, or any nation, or any people, in fear and subjection is to set yourself up as an Authority speaking for God. What you then tell a people cannot be disproved; it can only be questioned; and if you fail to question and seek proof, you shall continue to be in subjection. If a majority of your fellow men blindly believe, it will do no good for you to question; for it you do not, or cannot, believe as they do, you will either leave your people, or your people will ostracize you. Never ridicule, nor deny, the other fellow’s God, least he hate you, or slay you.

The same situation obtains, and may be seen, in Matthew 16:13-19:

16:13 “When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesara Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, ‘Whom do men say that ‘I’ the Son (Sun) of man AM?’

16:14 “And they said, ‘Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets’.

16:15 “He saith unto them, ‘But who say ye that “I” AM?’

16:16 “And Simon Peter answered and said, ‘Thou art the Christ, the Son (Sun) of the living God’.

16:17 “And Jesus answered and said unto him, ‘Blessed art thou Simon Barjona; for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven’. (in Mind, as a Thought, Within - for that is where He and every Master located the creative Power of Thought and Intuition)

16:18 “And, I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter (meaning when interpreted from the Greek, a ‘rock,’ ‘dependable,’ ‘reliable’), and upon this rock I will build my church, or chaerchah; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it’. (No evil, erroneous, destructive thought will stand against the force of the philosophy of Truth.)

16:19 “And, ‘I’ will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven; (the Secret of creative thinking) and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth (prove Truth) shall be bound in heaven (in Mind); and whatsoever thou shalt loose (disprove) on earth shall be loosed in heaven'.” (Because to disprove a statement, one MUST first have thought to do so)

On that false, unprovable statement hangs the whole structure of the Roman Catholic Church; accounts for their so-called sacrament of Confession, and Holy communion, and remission of sin, as well as the authority for the Pope.

A careful study of the Christian (New Testament) Scriptures will prove that either Jesus lacked management ability and knowledge of human character, or was - as has been said of him - a poor organizer and promoter. If He selected the disciple Peter to lead His disciples in His absence, His selection was a poor one, for it was Peter who denied Him for fear that he, Peter may have been accused of association with Him, and thus condemned with Him.

It may also be considered that He selected twelve men to become His disciples who had never before been known for any worthy achievements, save perhaps, being fairly good fisherman. It is doubtful that the twelve actually knew enough to make a decent living; none of them had been successful in any way; none of them were what might be called independent, and all of them except Judas blindly believed without any question whatever He told them.

The Easter Holiday is the last day of the Lenten season - strictly a church ritualism. It is intended to celebrate the resurrection of the lifeless body of Jesus, after having been killed by hanging on a cross for three hours. There is not the slightest evidence anywhere in World History that such an event ever occurred, save in Roman Catholic church history, which is not dependable, nor provable. It is, however, a delightful occasion for millions who do not, or cannot, or will not, Think and Reason. It is an occasion, or season, for buying and dressing up in finery; a delightful day for children who look forward for weeks to new wearing apparel, Easter bunnies and chicks, and coloured eggs.

It is a delightful occasion for the church, because it brings hundred and thousands of people into the churches who had not been inside a church since the previous Easter celebration. Altogether it affords an opportunity for the false teachers to repeat the age old story of a crucifixion which NEVER took place - and which cannot be shown in history to have occurred, save as the Christian hierarchy have made the story the basis of their religion.

At the time of the mythical crucifixion told by the church, nobody was present to have witnessed it, save an angel of the Lord who told those who are supposed to have come to the sepulchre (or tomb) to see if His body were there, that He has risen. His body was never found, nor located, because it could not have been interred anywhere in the Holy Land, for He had been banished, and had returned to the Orient to live out His life of ninety-six years among Those Who had instructed Him in the lamasery of Changu-Nahrain, Benares, and Kum Bum (pronounced like Koon Boom) in Thibet.

Two Nepalese historians and three different Hindu historians have written of Him; but no European non Asiatic historian has ever written truthfully about Him and His life. The ONLY record of His teachings is contained in the four gospels of the New Testament, which has been revised so many times, and altered each time to suit the revisers, that it is doubtful that very much of Truth was maintained, and is available now.

The more you study Religion, and religious history, the more convinced you must become that there has never been any witness to the revelations of God in any of the Testaments of any of the religions of the world. Nobody saw God give the two tablets containing the Ten Commandments to Moses. He came out of a burning clump of bushes, carrying the two huge stone tablets and told the people that God had just commanded them, by telling Moses what to tell the people. But none of the people saw God, nor heard God speak; they blindly believed what Moses told them.

Religion is a good deterrent for the masses; it has, in some ways, prevented complete destruction and slaying. It has also provided some measure of Law for ruling the unruly. It has produced some very intelligent persons, and it has also produced some fools. Only an intelligent individual could promote religion; and only a fool could blindly believe, without any proof, religious dogma.

If you enumerate the claims for religion, you will find that every instance has been as result, or effect, of Thought. Religious ecstasy is an effect of conscious fanaticism; religious “cures,” and “miracles,” are effects of creative Thought-power; the so-called miracles of “seeing” saints, as when persons claim to have seen, and talked with, Saint Theresa, or the late “Mother” Cabrini who was made a saint by the Pope, and other such claims, are effects of religious fanaticism, carried to a high pitch of emotionalism; the “blessing” of throats and claims that sore throats have been cured by a so-called piece of a bone of the body of the woman who had been known as Saint Ann, is another evidence of emotional ecstasy and religious fanaticism - results of concentrated attention on the subject in question.

No cripple who ever approached the shrine at Lourdes in doubt has ever been cured. But many who approached that shrine in France have come away cured; Why? Because they KNEW they would be cured. They applied the principle of Law to their belief, for as The Jewish Master Teacher of Galilee put it, “What things so ever you desire, when you pray (when you concentrate and visualize) BELIEVE (BE SURE THAT YOU EXPECT) that you receive them (ALREADY), and you shall have them.”

Men and women who become , and recognize themselves as, Theological Scientists are actually Truth Seekers - seeking for the provable Truth - regardless of religious, or philosophical, or scientific statements made public by any person of whatever imagined authority. However, there is an old, anonymous adage which enables us to not only tolerate the false teachings, but the false teachers on occasion, which reads: “A little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest men,” and those who cannot “go along” with false ideas foisted upon a blind believing mass of careless, unthinking humanity, may have cause for elation that they were courageous enough to refuse to abide by such dictation, and seek for the kingdom of God WITHIN, in Mind, and so become creative thinkers and controllers of their everyday life and Destiny.

“Ye shall Know The Truth , and The Truth shall make you free!”

In any event, let us not condemn our neighbour for his belief - blind or otherwise. Let us, rather, try to help him and her to enjoy their belief with them - though we cannot agree with the belief.

So it is that even though there is no actual evidence for belief of statements made by religious leaders, we can wish, and try to help, our neighbours enjoy Holy Days which are sacred to them. And while we try to do this, in trying to bring the kingdom of heaven outwardly, from within, our everyday lives and affairs, for the benefits of all others with whom we come in contact, we CAN enjoy our realization of The Truth of being in spiritual At-one-ment with Infinite Omnipresence, and creative nature of Thought which we CAN make use of and direct in all our mentations for making manifest the material reality of our desires.

Samuel Langhorne Clemens, Mark Twain (1835-1910) once stated: "It is difference or opinion that makes horse races." And he might have added, "religions and religious beliefs."

One Truth I am sure I have proved to my satisfaction: it is that "heaven" and "hell" are but states of consciousness. Another is that I KNOW "I" AM: I cannot allow myself to think I AM Not - for I AM Here Now. As proceed in logical reasoning I am quite sure "I" AM NOT a body; that "I" occupy this body which "I" wear.

I cannot blindly believe that The Supreme Presence-Power-Intelligence men call God, is a Person, or Individual, in human form. I prefer to imagine It as Natural Law, Cause and Effect - and that I direct That Law, as Cause - for good or for evil - according to my conscious attitude from time to time. I AM, therefore, anxious to maintain control of my thought processes so that I avoid creating causes of undesirable effects or conditions in my life and affairs. This, to others, may appear to be a selfish idea; to me it is the epitome of uncommon sense, which is more desirable than common sense.

In referring to, or discussing, religions and religious beliefs, it is not my intention to disparage the opinions of others. I refer to all such for the sake of comparison, or description, and often because of what I imagine to be ridiculous dogma and ritualistic pageantry. Even when I was a curate myself (before I became aware that I could not, in good conscience, agree with what I had been taught to blindly believe without questions), I felt that it was idiotic for any man to attire himself in robes, silks and laces, and go about among parishioners effecting a pious mien. I have long since believed - with Saint Germaine and Abraham Lincoln - that one can be as religious denominational brand, as a Free Thinker.

As Patrick Henry said of his right to oppose the king's taxation without due representation: "If this be treason, make the most of it." Of course, it is not to be expected that every individual will be in agreement with The Truth of Being, because the vast majority have been born into families and religious conditions which, for the sake of maintaining harmony, they have been forced to adhere to and follow.

When, however, an individual develops courage to think independently, and to dare to oppose what does not seem to be logical, he will rebel - either silently, within himself, and hold his peace without open antagonism, and continue on in silent disagreement, or he will openly acknowledge his refusal to submit to any form of dictation, and withdraw from religious and social associations and bigotries. He will then seek for Knowledge until he meets with what appears to him to be sensible, workable and provable - and thereafter the church has lost him - which accounts, in large measure, for the several millions of people without any church affiliations, or any prescribed religious belief.

The person who becomes aware of the fact that there are numberless religious doctrines, and that all of them have their adherents, begins to seek knowledge of as many different forms of religion as he can learn about for MAKE NO MISTAKE, RELIGION IN SOME FORM HAS ALWAYS BEEN INTENSELY INTERESTING TO ALMOST EVERY INDIVIDUAL - whether it be a dogmatic fundamentalism, or a reform or conservative doctrine, or a reason for agnosticism, pantheism, or atheism.

It has always seemed pitiful to me that friends, relatives, college and social associates have nearly always proclaimed, professed and been known by the brand of religious belief into which they were born, without questions.

When one begins to surmise that the religion into which he was born does not conform with good sense, and that his religious teachers have been failing to instruct in principles of knowledge which can be applied and proved, he will get busy about reading whatever books, or pamphlets he can find, and he then begins to Think. If he continues his search for what he imagines is Truth, he will probably go far afield, but it has been said, "When the student is ready, the Teacher will appear," and he will eventually find the Teacher who will lead him the Truth, and when he becomes consciously aware of What he feels to be Truth, he will formulate his own principles and practices, and thereafter enjoy the peace of mind, and freedom of thought which will prove satisfying.

When you learned about THE THEOLOGICAL SCIENCE SOCIETY, and Its wide appeal to so many, you made enquiry, later enrolled for Membership, and began to read the instructive Lessons and folders which compose the Course of Training for Personal Development, or self-improvement, through SELF KNOWLEDGE which is offered to all Members as a feature of Fellowship. The very first four Lessons, perhaps, were surprising to you. Here you began to find statements so daring, so different, and yet so logically true and provable that you wondered why you had not thought of these facts yourself. The fact that you did wonder why you had not before been certain of this Truth, proved that your agreement indicates your subconscious possession of this remarkable Knowledge, long before you every read the First lesson of the Course of Training.

If you have proceeded beyond the Twelfth Lesson of Volume 1, you have undoubtedly become aware that this Theological Science constitutes the provable, non-sectarian, philosophic-religious Truth of "The Wisdom Religion" of the ancients, from Which all other religions have sprung in one way or another.

Whereas you had been falsely taught about a God in human form - a Person seated on a throne in what you called "heaven," without geographical location - somewhere afar off in the skies, to which all who blindly obey religious dictates will be dispatched after "death" in this Earth-plane, to enjoy eternal bliss; and about a "Devil," called "Satan," who rules the "Christian" "hell," somewhere in the bowels of the earth called the "Nether region," to which all who disobey the church teachings will be sent to suffer the "tortures of the damned" throughout eternity - UNLESS relatives or friends remaining Here can afford to pay enough for prayers and Masses to "pray" them out of "hell" and get them started toward "heaven," you were suddenly confronted with deliberate denial and condemnation of all such religious false teaching, and shown that The Christ, the so-called Foundation of the Christian church, NEVER taught any such doctrine.

You began to suddenly learn the Truth that You ARE a Spiritual Being - NOT a physical body; that You, The Spiritual Identify, actually occupy the body You wear; that because of Your Spiritual Being You ARE ONE with, and the Same as, The Source of Your Being - commonly called God Which, instead of a gigantic Male Being, IS The Infinite Omnipresence - as Universal Intelligence, or reign of Absolute Law of Cause and Effect Which is The Same in every part of existence; that You are endowed with Mind Which expresses as Thought; and that Thought is Cause of action and manifestation of whatever you consciously Think.

You have learned that Mind is NOT peculiar to your physical brain - but that the brain is but an organ of the nervous system, and Mind, or Intelligence, functions in EVERY cell of your physical structure - even the most infinitesimal cell of the body. The cell-intelligence is supervised by Your Subconscious Intelligence, and as The Christ - and all Other Master Teachers of Time taught - "As a man thinks (emotionally, with feeling) so is he, and so will be Become."

You have learned that EVERY thought you entertain or create IS a Cause which is expressed in some form of action, and that you - (not a God, or a saint, or some falsely-taught religious mythical being) and YOU ALONE ARE RESPONSIBLE for every action and every effect, result, or condition which follows Thought.

You have learned that the CONTROL of EVERY thought means the CONTROL of EVERY effect and condition in and of your life and affairs - and that as you control your thinking, so you control all the affairs of your everyday life.

Being in spiritual At-one-ment with Infinite Omnipresence, endowed with creative Thought-power, your life and affairs are not dependent upon some extraneous imagined force, or Deity. You, and You Along, ARE responsible!

You have learned that ALL possession is based on consciousness - regardless of your possession -whether it be health, or poise, or character, or prosperity, or abundance, or success in some avenue of endeavour, or general well-being, - or fear, worry, lack, limitation, misery, discord, or failure in any form.

All gain is the result of an accumulative consciousness. All loss is the result of a scattering consciousness. Mental efficiency is contingent upon harmony; discord means confusion; therefore, whoever would acquire power MUST Be in harmony with Natural Law - Cause and Effect.

You - the Spiritual Being occupy the body- are related to the world without (the objective world of conscious humanity) by the objective (conscious) Mind . The brain is the organ of this Mind, and the cerebrospinal system of nerves puts you in conscious communication with every part of your body. This system of nerves responds to every sensation of light, heat, odor, sound and taste.

When this Mind thinks correctly, when it understands the Truth, when the thoughts sent through the cerebro-spinal nervous system (by vibration) to the body are harmonious, constructive, these sensations are pleasant, desirable.

The result is that you build strength, vitality and all constructive forces into the body; but it is through this same objective mind that all distress, sickness, lack, limitation and every form of discord and in harmony is admitted to your life and affairs. It is therefore through the objective (self conscious) mind - by wrong thinking - that you are related to all destructive forces.

You are related to the world within (the spiritual world of Thought) by the subconscious mind. The solar plexus is the organ of this mind; the sympathetic system of nerves presides over all subjective sensations, such as joy, fear, love, emotion, respiration, imagination and all other subconscious phenomena. It is through the subconscious that we are connected to the Universal Mind (the Infinite Omnipresence, or God if you prefer) and brought into relation with the infinite constructive forces of the Universe.

It is the co-ordination of these two centers of your being - and the understanding of their functions - which is The Great Secret of Life. With this Knowledge you can bring the objective (conscious) and subjective (subconscious) minds into conscious co-operation and thus co-ordinate the finite and the Infinite.

Your future IS entirely within your own CONTROL. It is NOT at the mercy of any capricious or uncertain external power. This same Truth is stated in an early Lesson of your Course of Training for Personal Development. What have you done about this Knowledge? Have you applied It's principles in your thinking and in your actions? Have you been enjoying the success - of whatever nature and in whatever direction- you have desired, or wanted, or yearned for?

If you haven't, get busy, and begin to enjoy the fruits of your Knowledge as so many of your Fellow Theological Scientists have. You will notice that the vast majority of people are like the little boy who could not stand erect unless he had hold of his mother's apron string. While Religious, or religious conviction is said to be essential, it is also true that blind belief in church dogma, or the false teachings of a scheming priestcraft, do not constitute Religion.

Kneeling, or standing, or sitting, or rolling about on the floor, or any other exhibition tending to promote a sense of devotion, may be helpful. And kneeling in supplication before a shrine, or statue of some "saint," may also be helpful - BUT all such exhibition is worthless UNLESS and UNTIL you KNOW that is your THOUGHT, or thinking, that is the basic CAUSE of results you will experience.

You, The Reality, the Spiritual Identity, did not come into Being when your body was born. You have ALWAYS Been. Never has been a time when You were not! The birth of the body You are now wearing merely marked Your reincarnation into this Earth-plane this time, for this experience. When Your body becomes no longer useful - whether because of neglect, sickness, disease, or accident - You will depart from it - just as you would move out of an useless house or apartment- and You Will return from whence You came into the body You now wear - to continue on in spiritual development and progression UNTIL You have become capable of graduation to The Highest plane of Being, in godhood, or Supreme-Presence - Your natural heritage. Be ye therefore wise, and make use of this existence to develop Your Self to Its highest form and condition of Being possible. Your future will prove to be commensurate with What You Become Now Here.

May you enjoy a delightful Spring season. My good wishes and love are with you. May He and They love you as I do, and care for and guide you in all your ways.

Your servant and friend,